'ROLL TOPS' VOTED SOCKS OF SECOND CHILDHOOD DAYS

Wilson College Girls Draw Up
"Credo"—Declare Harvard
Squirrels Never Lean.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., June 9.—Not to be outdone by Harvard of any college for mere men, Wilson College of this place, has issued a "credo" which contains two scores of the beliefs professed by the student body. Extracts follow:

lege, third oldest college for women in the United States, believe "That permanent waves help make permanent wives. That the squirrels on the Harvard campus will never go hungry. That rolled stockings are the socks of second childhood. That 'The Coming of the King' should never and a place on the library shelves. That Theodore Roosevelt was the most typical American. That Hanna Patterson of Pittsburgh, is the greatest living Wilson alumna. That Wilson fudge is making the University of Pennsylvania famous. "That no one knows more about the meaning of the word 'sacrifice' than a minister's wife—unless it be a hospital nurse. That the small college has it all over the large one. That the reason there are more 'great men' than 'great women' in the world is because women have spent most of their time helping men to greatness. That being a minister's daughter is no serious handicap. "That women's place is wherever woman is useful. That education is the searchlight of civilization. That Princeton men are neat conversationalists. That men from Dickinson have nice voices. That we'll get a $1,000,000 endowment. That State College is a pleasant place for the sojourner. That love, play and work will make any life complete."

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—Three armed men entered the office of the Merchants Ice and Coal Company yesterday and escaped with nearly $3,000 after compelling employees to open a safe. BURGLAR FLEES PARENT

WARNED BY BABY'S CRY

ST. LOUIS, N. J., June 9.—Cries of a baby awakening its mother frightened off thieves who had forced an entrance to the drug store of Joseph Corbett early yesterday morning. The robbers fled without any loot. A window was forced. Robbers were also frightened off without any plunder after breaking into the jewelry store of M. Klein, 515 Kaighn avenue.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., June 9.—A chain letter supposed to have gone around the world before reaching here has just been received. It is believed to have originated on Flander Field, and contains these words: "God bless our soldiers and keep them in the hollow of Thy hand."
